

THE FIS SECURITIES PROCESSING SUITE

An Integrated Front-to-back Securities Processing Solution for Broker-dealers

The regulatory and margin pressures broker-dealers face today will forever change the economics, strategy and operation of their businesses. As firms make decisions to drive their future, they must be able to meet new customer demands, expand their offerings, and reduce the cost, complexity and risk of their business operations.

That's why FIS™ has brought together our leading solutions for securities processing into a single suite. With the FIS Securities Processing Suite, you get an optimized processing platform of global, multi-asset capabilities throughout your business lines and global connectivity across exchanges, clearinghouses and counterparties.

1. Control Your Total Cost of Ownership (TCO)

With a predictable economy-of-scale pricing model, you can reduce your TCO, today and in the future – with no surprises.

2. Support Multiple Lines of Business

You can support multiple business lines, asset classes and currencies on a single platform.

3. Reduce Regulatory Risk

FIS provides mandated upgrades and industry requirements at no extra cost to you. With a single, real-time back-office solution for all instruments and business lines, you can reduce risk and deliver on growth.
